VOL. [illegible] RALEIGH, [illegible] NO. [illegible]

THE NEWS.

—For latest news see Second Page.

—According to the Norfolk Virginian correspondent, yellow fever and [illegible] have made their appearance on board the [illegible] at that place.

—A large meeting [illegible] Monday night, at which [illegible] Morrissey were among the [illegible].

—A new privilege has been granted to [illegible] that of writing to his wife. His letters, of course, are revised before sent. Thus his prison has been gradually relieved of [illegible] dship. He confesses, in fact, that the only thing he has to complain of, now are his despondency, and, in his view, unnecessarily deferring [illegible]. He has recovered [illegible] of his health is wholly restored. He takes daily walks and his appetite is excellent. Mr. [illegible] has also recovered, and Mr. Mitchell is now in better health.

—Major W. G. Dickson, formerly inspector of artillery on the staff of Major-Gen. Barry, has received the appointment of United States Marshal for the State of Georgia. The Major was a resident of Savannah when the war broke out, and, although all his material interests lay in the South, he they were sacrificed in what he conceived to be a duty to the country. He came North and entered the service, where he distinguished himself in the campaigns of the Western army until the surrender of Johnston.

—We have important (if true) intelligence from Northern Mexico, by way of Santa Fe and Denver. The dispatch states that the French have occupied Chihuahua, and that Juarez and his Cabinet have fled to El Paso, a little town on the Rio Grande, just on the borders of Texas and New Mexico. It is added that he will probably soon be compelled to cross the river and seek shelter in the United States.

—The Haytien despatch boat Geffrard put into Beaufort, North Carolina, on the 1st instant for coal and water. The captain is the bearer of despatches to Washington, which it is presumed have reference to aid for the quelling of the rebellion with which President Geffrard just now finds his hands full. As the steamer is to come on to New York to be caulked and refitted, we shall probably be put in possession of fuller information on the subject in a day or two.

—A negro mass meeting—a strange and significant feature in Alabama politics—was held at Huntsville, Ala., August 28. About two thousand former slaves were present. They were addressed by General Fisk, of the Freedmen's Bureau, who told them that whatever was detrimental to the black man was detrimental alike to the white man.

He had hoped to be able to lease some abandoned plantations to them; but as President Johnson believed, "was going to pardon all the rebels," their prospects were not so good in this respect as they had been. He advised them to live quietly, to work on shares, and to disabuse their minds of the notion that their old masters' estate was going to be cut up amongst them. He told them they should have justice and fairplay, but otherwise they must "work out their own salvation." The conduct of the assemblage is stated to have been unexceptionable, and the General's speech produced a good effect on all present.

—The boarders at ten hotels in one of the New York wards pay about one eighth of the whole revenue from incomes collected in that wealthy ward, and it is supposed that if all the boarders in that ward had included they would be found to return about one seventh of the whole. The number of boarders of the ten hotels who return incomes is 217, and the aggregate amount is 3,130,902.

—One county in Illinois will produce a million gallons of wine this year.

—A count was kept of Congress Springs, Saratoga, one morning last week, when it appeared that the boys dipped at the rate of fifty glasses a minute, or 3,000 glasses per hour. The amount drank that morning, in three hours, was about 9,000 glasses.

—The yellow fever is prevailing in Havana, the mortality portion of deaths being greater than usual.

—Mayor Gunther has petitioned Gov. Fenton to appoint an earlier day than the 26th inst. for trial of Tweed, former as a member of the street commission, on Gregory charges.

—Miss Dix the philanthropist, has gone to Williamsburg, Va., to look after the welfare of the lunatic asylum there and the comfort of its inmates.

—There were 1788 prize claims settled during the month of August, involving $182,582,20. The total number received during the same period was 2036.

—An exchange tells of a man being held to bail for battery. He is an interesting young man seventy-three years of age. His injured wife is an interesting young lady only sixty six years old, mother of a small family of seventeen children.

—Gen. Rufus Saxton, commanding at Hilton Head, has married one of the School Superintendents who went down there from the North, and settled down comfortably on a two thousand acre plantation.

—A message received at Chicago on Monday, the 4th instant, and dated McCrealish, August thirteenth, says the Russian American Overland Telegraph Company's bark Clara Bell arrived at Sitka, June thirteenth, making the voyage from New York city in one hundred and thirty-five days, touching at the Cape de Verde Islands for water. This vessel, it will be recollected, took out a small propeller steamer for the use of the expedition on the interior waters. She arrived at Sitka with everything in good order, and all on board well.

—It is confidently predicted in Washington that President Johnson will issue a proclamation in a few days restoring the writ of habeas corpus in the loyal States.

NORTH NEWS.

[illegible] Temple [illegible] Salisbury, [illegible] Monday evening, just in time of the fast train for Charlotte. [illegible] in the house of her father, [illegible] Mary [illegible] and the warmest sympathy of all the citizens and soldiers. [illegible] through the fire unscathed. Every child who has ever made their [illegible] happy with [illegible] sympathies with the sad, and have followed the progress of the trial with [illegible] Miss Temple will remain to her home for a few days, while we hope her [illegible] will lighten, not the gloom cast by the shadow of her great dark trouble.

Gen. Heath, the new commandant of the District of Salisbury, has arrived there and established his head quarters at that place.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Salisbury has been held to memorialize the Governor regarding a municipal government for that city.

From the new Superintendent, Capt. S. S. Kirkland, the Salisbury Banner learns that it is impracticable to run a daily train on the W. N. C. Railroad, from the fact that they have but one passenger car belonging to them, and one passenger car borrowed from the Atlantic Railroad and which is liable to be called for at any time. They are also deficient in other transportation. It is the wish of the Superintendent that there be a daily train and he will lend all his energies to this end. The grading of the road also requires much attention, and he is anxious to have as much of it repaired as is possible before the winter sets in.

Dr. I. W. Jones is a candidate to represent the people of Rowan in the State Convention.

The Wadesboro' (Anson county) Argus has been revived.

The Newbern Times says that Maj. Gen. Webb, in his tour of inspection through our much abused State, was in that city on Thursday last.

Newbern is so healthy that the undertakers are selling out and the doctors are buying second handed clothing.

A man named Martin Cahill, while laboring under an attack of delirium tremens, jumped into the Neuse River, near Newbern the other day, and was drowned.

The first bale of new cotton, from this State, was shipped on the 8th for New York on the steamer Charles Benton. It is from the plantation of Haskell & Fisher, about four miles from Newbern. It is classified as strict middling.

We observe that Dr. Rufus K. Speed, of Pasquotank, is recommended for the next Congress from the 1st district in the State.

Dr. Wm. Nicholson, a sensible man and a most excellent member of the society of Friends, is a candidate for the Convention in Perquimons county.

We learn that W. A. Smith, Esq., of Johnson, has declined to run for the Convention, and that Dr. J. T. Leach has been announced. So says the Newbern Times.

Twenty white laborers have been brought to Wilmington from the North. They arrived on the 7th instant.

The Blackburn-Wheeler Difficulty.

The following is the report of the Union General at Nashville, concerning a cowardly assault by two of our officers upon General Wheeler in bed and unarmed:

HEADQUARTERS MID. DIV. OF THE TENNESSEE,
Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 26, 1865.

Brevet Brig. Gen. E. C. Mason, Comd'g Post of Nashville:

GENERAL: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your report of the investigation ordered by the Major-General commanding into the cause for the assault upon Mr. Joseph Wheeler, late Major-General in the army of the so-called Confederate States, at the City Hotel, in this city. Your report has been carefully and impartially considered by the Major-General Commanding, and the facts therein elicited and brought out, with other facts in the same connection, which have been brought to his notice, show the attack on Mr. Wheeler, by Lieutenant Colonel Blackburn and Captain Quinn, 4th Tennessee cavalry, wholly unprovoked and unjustifiable, and unbecoming an officer in the service of the United States.

Mr. Wheeler, as a paroled prisoner, is justly entitled to protection, instead of being exposed to assaults, and his position by virtue of [illegible] an unarmed man, and happy without means of defence, should have been, and must in future be respected, and not only in his case, but in the case of all other paroled officers occupying a similar position.

You will convey to Lieutenant-Colonel Blackburn and to Captain Quinn, of the 4th Tennessee cavalry, the notification of [illegible] and report the mind of Major-General [illegible] To [illegible] like and reprehensible conduct, and say to them that their muster-out of the service of their regiment has been the only reason for their not being subjected to arrest and trial by court-martial. Their conduct at the time of the assault, as well as subsequently, has been an insult and disgrace to the uniform they wore, and to justly discountenanced and frowned down upon by every honorable and high-minded officer and enlisted man in the service.

The Major-General commanding directs that you will further require of Lieutenant-Colonel Blackburn and Capt. Quinn [illegible] and satisfactory assurance for their future good conduct, and the strictest obedience with all orders and regulations for the preservation and maintenance of public peace, and at the same time admonish them that they will be held to the strict accountability for any further breach of the laws.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
Brevet Lieutenant Colonel and A. A. G.

By command of Brevet Brigadier General E. C. Mason.
JOHN J. LAMBERT,
Brevet Lieutenant Colonel and A. A. G.

THE STATE.

[illegible] Gen. Meade to start for Richmond in the evening of this day. During his stop in the State he has paid flying visits to several prominent points, and although his stay at each was limited to a few hours, he has probably posted himself as regards the object of his mission.

Messrs. Keogh & Crane, of the Metropolitan at Greensboro', we have no doubt, entertained their distinguished guests in a satisfactory manner. A short time since they leased the Britain House, and refurnishing, refitting and rearranging it generally, gave it a new name—the Metropolitan. We advise all travelers to give them a trial when passing.

A COURT OF INQUIRY is now in session in Raleigh, convened at the request of a certain Captain and A. Q. M., to investigate the cause of a rumor which, if true, would decapitate said A. Q. M.—The story goes that on a certain occasion, where some of the most beautiful and most superb ladies of the "City of Oaks" were present, at a social gathering, a toast was proposed to the health of "Our President—Jefferson Davis," and was drunk by the captain. His friends claim that the toast was qualified by a proposition to hang J. D., after the exalted manner of Haman.

AN EQUINE MATTER.—There is an old song about a quadruped of the equine species biting his master, because "he heard the good parson say all flesh is grass." Whether the beast of a certain gentleman we wot of has been in earshot of a parson or not—we think that the owner hasn't very lately—we do not know; but from all accounts, he acted, last Saturday evening, as if he had. Some people have strange pets, and if they insist on foster-ing man-eaters they must expect once in a while to get bit.

ALTERED NOTES.—Our attention has been called to the method by which small notes are altered from a less to a greater denomination. The note shown us was of ten cents value originally, but the adroit holder of the fractional had pasted a figure "5" over the "1," thereby improving its face to the extent of forty cents additional.

This is small gain for so large a risk, and while no great number of such altered notes are probably circulating in our midst, rumor says that Norfolk and other Virginia towns have a goodly sprinkling afloat.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK IN.—It is reported that a party of men, who had indulged freely, made attempt forcibly to enter a "shebang," last Saturday night, in the vicinity of the gas house. A colored man, who is the proprietor, gave the alarm, and the assailants retreated without effecting an entrance and minus any booty. Indeed, from the facts stated to us we doubt whether the purpose was plunder.

WHITE HELP.—See advertisements of Wm. B. Smith, Esq., who wants a white woman to do the house-work of a small family.

It is plain to us from the applications which reach us in various forms, that if some enterprising business man would introduce white help here, it would pay him handsomely and amply remunerate the parties employed.

SERENADE.—A party of amateur vocalists, whose voices show considerable cultivation, were out on a rampage last Saturday night, and serenaded quite a number of ladies and gentlemen. They designed so to complimentize us, but were prevented by the enfeebled health of one of our esteemed neighbors.—We thank them for their kind intention.

TO BE MUSTERED OUT.—We learn, on excellent authority, that the enlisted men of the colored regiments stationed in this State, whose homes are in the North, will be mustered out immediately. This will reduce the present number of that class of troops in this State, nearly, if not quite, one half.

FALSE ALARM.—About 10 o'clock, last Saturday night, some one with an admirable [illegible] of lungs screamed "fire! fire!!" at the very highest octave of which he was capable. Divers and sundry people were thereby hugely alarmed, but the apprehension was not warranted by any outward blazes.

RAIN.—After a season of general, [illegible] followed by rain or heavy dews, the corn is considerably improved [illegible]. The weeds are still heavy, and we cherish a fond hope that the opponents of the quiet Democratic [illegible] will be enlisted [illegible] a call Monday morning.

W. P. [illegible] Allen of this city, has been [illegible] Clerk in the city Post office.

AGENTS WANTED FOR
The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.
1,000 COPIES SELLING PER DAY!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling through the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 600 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fun, incidents and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greely says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies, and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MONDAY, SEPT. 11, 1865.

Newbern.

On the occasion of our recent visit to Newbern we were pleased to witness additional evidences of the continued and increased prosperity of that place. The steamers plying between that port and New York and other northern cities have heavy freights and large passenger lists both ways, and though this is the dull season, ordinarily, the wharves give evidence that an active business is doing.

We spent a half hour in looking through the large wholesale drug establishment of Dr. H. J. Menninger, who is doing an immense business and who can supply dealers in the interior on as good terms as northern houses. He was filling orders for Raleigh, Salem, Salisbury, Statesville, and other interior towns. The Doctor buys cautiously and on the best terms and many interior merchants and druggists who go north for small stocks might make money by purchasing from him.

We visited Messrs. Hough, Leland, Biglow & Co., Oliver & Co., Rose & Co., Baer, Hulburt & McLean, Goodspeed, Hughes & Dill, and other advertising patrons and found them all doing well at present and sanguine and hopeful for the future. We shall expect to see a large accession to the population and business of Newbern with the coming winter.

And here we may mention that such of the Newbern merchants as may want to bring their names and business before the people of the up-country, and have not yet given us their cards, may find room for them if sent at once.

Education in the South.

There is some danger that the next generation of negroes in the South may be more intelligent and better educated than the great mass of the whites. So much public attention and effort are devoted to the former, and the latter seem left so entirely to their own resources, (which are scanty at best,) that such a result seems by no means impossible. The blacks, themselves, moreover, seem to be far more thoroughly alive to the value of mental culture than the poor class of Southern whites. They are showing a most admirable and praiseworthy interest in the schools provided for them, and are likely to profit by them very thoroughly.

Gen. Foster has issued an order in North Carolina, declaring that free schools will be provided for the poor Whites of the State, as rapidly as possible, and that a beginning is already made at Newbern. This is an excellent movement and deserves encouragement. Whites must desire the education of the blacks, no one can seek to confine it to them. In the new order of things in the South the great mass of the people, white and black, will exert a far greater influence than ever before, and the education of both classes becomes a matter of public importance.

We extract the above from the New York Times, and present it to our intelligent readers for what it is worth, knowing that they will be able to discern and appreciate the facts therein set forth. Many of our oldest citizens and shrewdest observers have expressed themselves astonished at the avidity with which the Freedmen have embraced opportunities to educate themselves since their emancipation, and therefore they admit that there is a slight probability that the prediction contained in the first sentence of the above paragraph may be realized. Every man who is posted as to the present condition of affairs in the South, must know that we cannot help ourselves at this time. There would be no schools accessible for any in the South now, except the wealthy, if we were dependent on ourselves, because we have not the means,—however willing we may be to do so—to establish and sustain them. But the negro-loving element of the North—although its leaders are far from opening their purses for such a purpose—have raised funds and sent scores of teachers down here to educate the darkies. We do not object to this,—except on account of its exclusiveness—for we know that, as soon as we are able, these institutions will be supplanted by those of Southern birth and maintenance. Until that time such movements as the one inaugurated by Gen. Foster should be received in good part, and those who are benefitted by it should be duly grateful.

We do not wish to be understood as admitting the probability that the freed slaves of the south, no matter what their advantages may be, can ever equal the whites. An African will be an African, as long as he lives, and if the Times editor were better posted on this matter, he would change his mind.

John Brown's Widow.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from California, furnishes that paper the following information regarding John Brown's widow:—

"At a little town, the head of navigation on the Sacramento River, lives the widow of Old John Brown. Her daughters teach public schools, while she finds employment as something between nurse and physician among the neighboring families, by whom she is warmly loved. She is entirely dependent upon her own labor. There is a project to purchase a house and lot for her in this, her chosen home. Any, who would aid so worthy an effort, may send their contributions through the mail, or by Wells, Fargo & Co's. Express to her at Red Bluffs, Tehama County, California. I do not know whether Mrs. Brown is aware of the movement, but surely, she ought to be placed beyond the reach of want by the American people."

In referring to this paragraph, the New York Times mounts its "moralising tripod," and gives the word and speech benevolent fanatics the following excellent hit:—

When Mr. Wendell Phillips bore, as it were, with pious care, the ashes of Old John Brown into the wilds of Northern New York, and shook the hundred-

THE STATE CONVENTION.

TO THE LOYAL VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.

Fellow Citizens:—Having been called by large meetings representing [illegible] town districts of the county, I announce myself a candidate for the place of delegate to the State, subject to the decision of the Convention, should one be held.

As the recent press of the State [illegible] number of Conservatives make a call for a Convention to nominate a ticket, which Convention met on Saturday last, but adjourned without making any nomination, there only being seven precincts represented. Previous to the assembling of the Convention, I begged my friends to drop my name if a better and more acceptable ticket could be formed, and urged the withdrawal or reconsideration of W. H. Hood, Col. Ross and A. F. Page. I expressly authorized my friends to withdraw my name in favor of the gentlemen above named, or any one else who held their principles; but as the County meeting adjourned without forming a ticket, it leaves me no other alternative but to run. I therefore announce to my fellow citizens that I am a candidate for the State Convention and that I shall canvass the county as well as the short time left will permit me, and invite those who have slandered me to meet me on the stump.

If elected to the State Convention I shall favor all measures calculated to restore civil law throughout the State, to restore the State to the Union and to relieve our people of military rule.

I shall most cheerfully and zealously support the administration of President Johnson and the administration and policy of Governor Holden.

I shall advocate the election of Governor Holden to the office he now holds by the appointment of the President when the people shall be called on to elect a chief magistrate.

In or out of the Convention I shall oppose negro suffrage. I shall advocate the enactment of laws for the protection of the person and property of the colored man, but I am opposed to extending him the right of suffrage or any other political privilege more than he now has.

I shall oppose the assumption or payment, by the State, of any debts or bonds, State bonds, Confederate bonds or County bonds, issued for the prosecution of the rebellion.

I shall favor the settlement of all debts of an individual character, contracted during the rebellion, upon a just, fair and equitable basis.

I shall favor the insertion of a clause in our State constitution declaring slavery or involuntary servitude, unless as a punishment for crime, forever abolished in North Carolina.

I give these outlines of my political principles for the benefit of such of my Conservative friends as may have been influenced or prejudiced by the falsehoods and slanders that have been circulated against me, but I will give them more in detail before the people.

I appeal to the really loyal and true Union men of Wake county for their suffrages. No man in the State has suffered more on account of the advocacy of peace measures than I have, and had my counsels been heeded by those in authority the war would have been closed before North Carolina was devastated by the presence of large armies. Of course the candidates of the secessionists will profess Unionism, but the fact that the leading secessionists, those who wanted Mr. Holden and his friends mobbed and hung last summer, support them, ought to be enough to cause all true Conservatives to shun them.

Strange Views of the Rebel Bondholders.

The following extraordinary advertisement appears in the London Telegraph:—

THE CONFEDERATE COTTON LOAN.

The following are extracts from an important decision of Vice Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood:

According to the recognised law of nations—said all the authorities were clear upon this point—when a de facto government had been superseded or put an end to the displacing government succeeds to all the rights of the de facto government; but the United States Government could only take the bonds because it had been the produce of funds raised by the de facto Confederate government, not by robbery or violence, but by the ordinary course of taxation, and because they—the United States government—were now the de facto government of those States in which the funds had been raised.

Speaking of the "Confederate government," Vice Chancellor Wood observed: "That the government was an actual and de facto government, exercising authority, and as such receiving submission from the courts of every country recognising it as a de facto government, and they could not allow the rights and contracts acquired by their own subjects with an existing government to be disregarded. The displacing government succeeded to the property of the displaced government in the State in which it was found, and subject to all agreements affecting it."

The unquestionable deduction from this decision is, either the United States must take upon itself the payment of the Confederate Cotton Loan, or it must allow that those States which were lately confederated, to fulfil their engagements in respect to it.

Additional.

On Saturday we published a portion of a dispatch from the agent of the Associated Press in this State, relative to affairs in the South. Its publication in the New York papers seems to have been delayed, but when it did appear it was more explicit. It is as follows:

Judge Carter, who has returned from an extensive trip through the South, states that the cruelty to the freedmen, and the number of homicides among them, by the whites, are increasing to a fearful extent, especially in places where the troops are being withdrawn.

The Judge has a copy of the Southern Sun, which says that if the Yankees are alarmed at the killing of a few hundred niggers a day, in States where they have the protection of Yankee troops to a certain extent, what will be their alarm after the departure of the military forces and the readmission into the Union of these States as sovereign powers, who will then have a complete organization of the militia in each county, which will give the South a standing army that can bid defiance to the world.

We don't know where the Southern Sun is located, but we venture the statement that, if the above paragraph ever appeared in its columns, it has no existence now. Some time since we alluded to discontented mutterings in Raleigh, as to what would be done "when the Yankees go away," and have held ourselves in readiness to prove our statements; but we have never imagined that any one would be so, foolish and indiscreet as to express themselves so boldly as the writer of the paragraph quoted above.

Petition in Behalf of Jeff. Davis.

We are not disposed to be ungallant and consequently say nothing about the following petition of the ladies of Abbeville, S. C., to President Johnson in behalf of Jeff. Davis. If the document had been the production of males, we would have denounced its authors as fools, or worse, traitors.—No true man can hope that Jeff. Davis will escape punishment for his crimes. The petition runs thus:

To His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:

We, the undersigned, ladies of Abbeville, South Carolina, respectfully exhibit to your Excellency our desire to intercede in behalf of Mr. Jefferson Davis, the President of the late Confederate States. We have heard with much satisfaction that petitions of a like nature have been addressed to your Excellency from other portions of the country, and we entertain the hope that these united appeals for mercy will not fall unheeded upon the ears of your Excellency.

In any event, it will be grateful to have thus testified our feelings for one whose faults, in our judgement at least, have not been past forgiveness. Called from the retirement of his home to a position which he did not solicit, but which his manhood forbade him to decline, illustrating by his conduct the highest devotion to principles, which were maintained with marked unanimity by his people, temperate in the hours of triumph, dignified and calm in the hours of defeat, always just, always generous, always brave, we see in his conduct everything to evoke sympathy, and nothing to merit the extreme punishment with which he is threatened. The same firmness and calm views of policy which on repeated occasions, he displayed in resisting the cries which, in his region were raised for sanguinary retaliation, we hope will now be exhibited, in disregard of the unfeeling agitation which seeks his life. We hope there will be a merciful remembrance of his poor wife, plundered and insulted after being torn away from his prison, and his young children, whose prospects in life have been so terribly blighted.

Impelled by the feelings of our nature—which are ever excited by the misfortunes of the brave and the good, which have in all ages characterized our sex, which moved the Marys to be the last at the Cross and the first to the grave—we earnestly beseech your Excellency to exercise, in behalf of Mr. Davis, all executive clemency.

Grant our petition, and, besides finding in your own breast the reward which attends every virtuous deed, we sincerely believe that you may expect increase of your own renown, and of the honorable character which forms the strength of your country. For ourselves we will say, we will hold in grateful remembrance this act of generosity to the unfortunate, and will teach our children "to rise up and call you blessed."

Abbeville, August 22, 1865.

—A permanent organization, known as the "Andersonville Prison Surveyors' Association," held a meeting in Washington on Monday night. The object of the society is to assist the widows and orphans of Andersonville prisoners, and also prisoners themselves when their circumstances demand it.

Circular from the Freedmen's Bureau.

The following circular was issued to-day:

War Department, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands,
Washington, D. C., Sept. 4, 1865.

Circular No. 15.—Circular No. 12, of July 28th, from this bureau, is hereby rescinded, and the following rules and regulations are established for the purpose of establishing a definite and uniform policy relative to abandoned lands or real property, and lands or real property which the United States shall have acquired a title by confiscation, or sale, or otherwise, which now or may hereafter come under the control of this bureau, by virtue of the act of Congress, approved March 3d, 1865, establishing it, and by order of the President, to wit:

General Orders, No. 110, War Department, dated the 7th, 1865.

First. Abandoned lands referred to in the law and regulations governing this bureau, are defined, according to section second of an act of Congress Approved July 2nd, 1864, as follows:

"All property, real or personal, shall be regarded as abandoned when the lawful owner thereof shall have voluntarily absent therefrom and engaged either in arms or otherwise in aiding or encouraging the rebellion.

Second. Property will not be regarded as confiscated until after the decree of the United States court for the district in which the property may be found has been made, by which the property is condemned as enemies' property and becomes the property of the United States.

Third. All abandoned land or real property, and all land or real property to which the United States shall have acquired title by confiscation or sale or otherwise, that is or may hereafter come under the control of the Bureau of Refugees and Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, by virtue of said act and orders of the President, is and shall be set apart for the use of loyal refugees and freedmen, and so much as may be necessary assigned them as provided in section fourth of the act establishing the bureau, viz: to every male citizen, whether refugee or freedmen as aforesaid, there shall be assigned no more than forty acres of such, and the persons to whom it is so assigned shall be protected in the use and enjoyment of the land for the term of three years, at an annual rent not exceeding six per centum upon the value of said land as it was appraised by the State authorities in the year 1860 for the purpose of taxation, and in case such appraisement can be found, the annual rental shall be based upon the estimated value of the land in said year, to be ascertained in such manner as the Commissioner may by regulation prescribe at the end of said term. The occupant of any parcel so assigned may purchase the land and receive such title thereto as the United States can convey, upon paying therefor the value of the land as ascertained and fixed for the purpose of determining the annual rent aforesaid.

Fourth. All lands or other real property within the several States, viz: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Maryland, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, to which the United States has acquired or shall acquire, by confiscation or sale, or otherwise, and all abandoned lands or other abandoned real property in these States, provided said property, whether confiscated or abandoned, remaining unsold or otherwise disposed of, shall have been properly transferred to the Bureau upon requisition of the Commissioners, shall be considered as under the control of the Commissioner of Refugees, Freedmen and abandoned lands, for the purpose hereinbefore set forth, and for the time authorized by the act establishing the Bureau; and no part or parcel of said confiscated or abandoned property shall be considered or restored to the former owners or their claimants, except such surrender or restoration as authorized by said Commissioner.

Fifth. Assistant Commissioners will as rapidly as possible, cause accurate descriptions of all confiscated and abandoned lands, and other confiscated and abandoned real property that is now or may hereafter come under their control, to be made, and besides keeping a record of such themselves, will forward monthly to the Commissioners of the Bureau copies of such descriptions, in the manner prescribed by circular No. 10, of July 11, 1865, from this Bureau. They will with as little delay as possible, select and set apart such confiscated and abandoned lands and property as may be deemed necessary for the immediate use of refugees and freedmen, the specific division of which into lots, and the rental or sale thereof according to the law establishing the Bureau, will be completed as soon as practicable, and reported to the Commissioner. In the selection and setting apart of such lands and property, care will be used to take that which there is the least doubt that the Bureau should have custody and control of.

Sixth. Whenever any land or other real property shall come into the possession of this Bureau as "abandoned" do not fall under the definition of "abandoned," as set forth in section two of the act of Congress, approved July 2nd, 1864, hereinbefore recited, it will be formally surrendered by the Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau to the State when such real estate is situated, upon its appearing that the claimant did not abandon the property in the sense defined in said section and act. Seventh. Former owners of property held by the Bureau as abandoned, who claim its restoration on the ground of having received pardon of the President, will, as far as practicable, forward their applications to the Commissioner of the Bureau through the Superintendents and Assistant Commissioners of the districts and States in which the property is situated. Each application must be accompanied by, 1st. A copy of the official grant of the President of the United States, or of the oath under his amnesty proclamation, when they are not embraced in any of the exceptions therein enumerated. 2d. Proof of title. 3d. Evidence that the property has not been confiscated or sold, in any United States Court, or if liable to, that proceedings against it have been discontinued. Officers of the Bureau through whose hands such applications may pass, will endorse thereon such facts as may assist the Commissioner in his decision, stating especially the use to which the property is put by the Bureau.

(Signed) O. O. Howard,
Major Gen. Commissioner of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands.

Approved, September 4, 1865.

President of the United States.

Our latest northern dates are of Friday the 8th, and from them we extract the following interesting news:

MORE PARDONS.

Thomas Wallace, Petersburg; George W. Sutherland Petersburg; James H. Cox, Chesterfield.—Also the following:

A T M Rust, Va.; Joseph E Brown, Ga.; Mrs Barnard, Ala.; Bedford Brown, N C Wm Tym, Va.; Matthew G. THE WIRZ TRIAL.

The trial of Wirz was resumed Thursday, the room being crowded, as usual, a number of ladies also being present. After the reading of the proceedings of the previous day the examination of witnesses was resumed.

Three witnesses were examined, but their testimony was simply a repetition of that which had previously been given by others.

The hour of one having arrived, the Court was about to take the usual recess, when

Mr. Baker called the attention of the Court to the fact that the prisoner was sick and was suffering today with severe pains in the head, besides having the bowel complaint, and suggested that the Court adjourn over until to-morrow that the prisoner might have medical attendance.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Nashville, September 7.—A train left here for Johnsonville this morning, containing military stores and having a passenger car attached, and when seven miles from the city, the car containing the ammunition blew up, shattering the train into fragments and scattering it in all directions. It is supposed that quite a number of persons have been killed, but the particulars are not yet received.

MORE WOUNDED.

Among the wounded at Richland Creek, and not heretofore reported, are General George S. Houston and Hon. Luke Pryor, of Athens, Ala., and Colonel Thomas Hewlett, and Major Cheatham, of Huntsville, Ala.

EXPATRIATION, &c.

A telegram from Washington dated Sept. 7, p. m., says:

There was again a large crowd at the Executive Mansion to-day, nearly all of whom were pardon-seekers, including Miles Taylor, formerly a representative in Congress from Louisiana. Some of them had been standing at the door for at least five hours waiting for admission, but had not been gratified up to three o'clock. The President, in the intervals of public business, received only a few of the visitors. To have opened the door of his office to all comers at once, with the thermometer indicating about 90 degrees, would have exposed him to the risk of suffocation. Fifty-two pardons were granted by the President to-day, and some of them impatiently repaired to the State Department to obtain the Secretary's signature to the document.

Gen. Marmaduke, known as a prominent officer in the late rebellion, is the first one to avail himself of the privilege to go abroad and remain without the United States during the pleasure of the Government, and has received a passport accordingly. Gen. Beauregard has also applied for a passport, under the same official order of the Department of State, through the medium of a sympathising lady friend, from Alabama.

PARDONED.

Ex-Governor Brown, of Georgia, was pardoned Wednesday.

FOUR MILES OF WIDOWS.

A young lady from Clinton county, Kentucky, who recently gave evidence in the Furguson trial informs the Nashville Dispatch that between her father's residence and Albany, a distance of four miles, thickly settled, presents an unbroken string of widows, young and old, all of them made so by the independent warfare carried on in that section on both sides.

FINANCIAL.

Gold sold in New York Thursday, at 144½.—U. S. 5-20's, 107⅛; Virginia Sixes, 58; N. C. Sixes, 72½.

The cotton market was firm, with an active business doing. Sales, 3,400 bales at 42@44 cents.—There has been an unprecedented rise in dry goods—particularly calicoes and bleached cottons, with prospects of a further advance.

Whisky lower—sales closing at $2.24@2.25.

PERSAUPTION.—We are [illegible] Secretary of State [illegible] acknowledged Gov. Holden of [illegible] tionary measure, of recommending [illegible] ty cure throughout North Carolina [illegible] against Asiatic cholera. The disease [illegible] made its appearance at London and [illegible] should confirm the story no further argument will be required to secure throughout the United States the most vigorous State and national policy to ward it off or at least lessen its power.

Gov. Holden will at once, we presume, display in the premises his accustomed energy. We are not of those who take alarm unnecessarily, nor do we now see occasion for panical excitement; but we should at all events suffer no fault of duty or neglect to distinguish us in the respect of prop[illegible] cautiousness. We will have quarantine regulations for the sea-board early enough.

DEATH OF THE LARGEST LANDOWNER IN THE WESTERN STATE.—Jacob Strawn, of Jacksonville, Illinois, died suddenly on the 24th ult. Starting in farming and cattle buying at an early age, with a capitol of fifty cents in silver, Mr. Strawn came to be the king farmer of the West. His acres spread over almost whole counties, and it was no unreal thing for him to sow a field of wheat or plant corn over a space twice the size of a German kingdom. He had sheep and kine upon a thousand hills, or would have had if the hills had been there. He built pretty much the whole of the village of Jacksonville; he represented his district in the Legislature, where was noted for direct and available good sense, and in all positions filled the ideas of a good citizen. His "little garden patch," at the time of his death, embraced nearly 35,000 acres, worth at least $1,500,000 without improvements.—He was twice married, and leaves seven sons and one daughter. In person he was a Daniel Lambert, weighing about 350 pounds. During the war he was an active and liberal friend and supporter of the Union cause.
